

International Ocean Institute-Canada

15th Annual Elisabeth Mann Borgese Lecture

Celebrating World Oceans Day 2019

Room 105, Weldon Law Building, 6061 University Avenue
Friday, 7th June, 7 - 8:30 PM Reception to follow. All welcome!

The “Blue Revolution”: Challenges and Opportunities

The featured speaker will discuss Canada's recent experience on this topic, and the three panelists will respond from the perspective of conservation, biodiversity, the environment and social justice.

Speaker: Ms Renée Sauvé Acting Director General of External Relations Directorate, Fisheries and Oceans Canada

Panel: Dr Ratana Chuenpagdee Director, Too Big To Ignore Partnership, MUN
Dr Susanna Fuller Senior Project Manager, Oceans North
Ms Sigrid Kuehnemund, Vice President, Ocean Conservation, WWF

IOI-Canada
in partnership with

